WILSON PREPARING SPECIAL MESSAGE ON MEXICAN TANGLE

To Discuss In Detail Negotiations Which Have Been Carried on Through Ex-Gov. Lind

WILL PRESENT THE AMERICAN NOTE. AND HUERTA REPLY

President Hopes to Lay the Mexican Situation Squarely Before Congress and the American People-Partial Answer to

Wilson was at work tonight on a spe-John Lind, with the Huerta government

The decision to make a comprehensive statement on the situation to Congress was reached today after the President had about concluded that the negotiations between Mr. Lind and Provisional President Huerta, since the exchange of notes, had developed no new basis for discussion.

With his message the President will present the two notes, setting forth the American suggestions to the Huerta government and it's reply. Should he read the document himself, which he is being urged to do by members of his cabinet and to which idea he is strongly inclined, it will be the first time since the days of George Washington that a President has Partly Burned Fuse Evicommunicated a matter of foreign policy in person to the legislative branch of the ator Penrose declared the sending of troops could by resolution be decreed not unfriendly to Mexico, the view at the White House and state department was that such a move in effect would be an act of war.

WILL NOT TAKE DRASTIC MEASURES

President Wilson reiterated to callers day that he had absolutely no intention taking any drastic measures, denied of taking any drastic measures, denied that Secretary Garrison of the war department had been called back to Washington, and referred to the fact that Mr. Garrison would take a vacation after his inspection trip in the west was ended. He incidentally complimented republican senators on their spirit of co-operation, emphatically stating there had not been the slightest exhibition of partisanship. That Provisional President Huerta has advanced the idea that recognition of his government is a partisan question in the United States, and that the democratic party is not actually dominant, is admitted by administration officials, but they believe that if such an illusion exists in
